Overview:

The Quran has made the obedience of Prophet Muhammad a condition for loving God and receiving His love and forgiveness (3:31). A hadith narrated by Anas ibn Malik implies that loving Prophet Muhammad reflects one's perfection of faith (Sahih Al-Bukhari 15, Muslim 44). Loving God and His messenger, and obeying them, are part of our religion. However, can we claim to have a deep, sincere love for someone without knowing them? This two-part course endeavors to introduce God and His final messenger by studying the messenger's life on earth, also known as Seerah. Through this course, we will learn how his life was a true depiction of the Quranic teachings, how he lived, and how God manifested His being, commands, and practices through His final messenger. Studying the Seerah of Prophet Muhammad and how God accompanied him throughout his life will help us build true love for him and his Lord, who is our Lord.

The content of this course is drawn from the Quran and other authentic sources. The course is divided into two parts: the first will focus on the life of Prophet Muhammad in Makkah until his migration from Makkah to Medinah, also known as the Makkan period. The second part of this course will focus on the life of Prophet Muhammad in Medinah till his departure from this earth, also known as the Medinan period.

Objectives:

The main objective of this course is to get to know our God and His final messenger through studying the Prophet's life. At the end of this course, the students will:

- Articulate the importance of messengers and why God sends them
- Understand the history of the children of Ismail who were settled in Makkah by Prophet Ibrahim upon the command of God
- Learn about the collective and moral condition of Arabs and the nations around them
- Describe the key events in the life of Prophet Muhammad before he was made a messenger
- Describe the key events in the life of Prophet Muhammad after he was made a messenger while he lived in Makkah
- Describe the key events in the life of Prophet Muhammad after he was made a messenger while he lived in Medina
- How did the Messenger and his companions navigate the various stages and challenges of the mission until he completed it?
- Learn about the people who were around Prophet Muhammad and how they helped him in his prophetic mission, and how he helped them become true icons of human virtues
- The significance of Hijrah (the migration) and events related to it

Delivery Method:

This course will be taught through various methods, including lectures, small projects, homework, and class discussions on topics and the main events of Seerah.

Course Outline:

The following list comprises suggested topics for the course. The topics may be slightly adjusted to meet the class's needs. Additional reading material (if needed) for each session will be available for download from the web portal a week before the session.

Note: A weekly lesson plan or outline will be created based on these topics, incorporating practical aspects of the course and exercises into the weekly lessons.*
